Red Bull Air Race World Championship 2010

Perth qualification report and results

Qualification round for 2010 Red Bull Air Race World Championship was held in Perth, Australia today.

Paul Bonhomme has secured pole position and the bonus qualification point with Hannes Arch Just 0.13 behind him. Local hero Matt Hall, with a lot of local support has qualified in 7th position.

Japanese pilot Yoshi Muroya hit a pylon on the first qualification round and finished with a total 9sec penalty. He decided to use Q2 as preparation for tomorrow's racing and made a stable flight in the second round and with no penalty. Unfortunately the time put him in 13th and therefore takes a place in the Wild Card round for tomorrow's racing.

The Wild Card session will start from 18th April 12:45 Japan time and can be viewed via Channel 6 at www.yoshi-muroya.jp.
